Jesus went up on the mountain, and there he sat down with his disciples. Now the Passover, the feast of the Jews, was at hand. Lifting up his eyes, then, and seeing that a large crowd was coming toward him, Jesus said to Philip, "Where are we to buy bread, so that these people may eat?"

GOD CLEANSES US IN CHRIST (Please be seated)

Leader: Let us hear the Word of God regarding the righteous character of our new lives in Christ.

"Now this I say and testify in the Lord, that you must no longer walk as the Gentiles do, in the futility of their minds. They are darkened in their understanding, alienated from the life of God because of the ignorance that is in them, due to their hardness of heart. They have become callous and have given themselves up to sensuality, greedy to practice every kind of impurity. But that is not the way you learned Christ!— assuming that you have heard about him and were taught in him, as the truth is in Jesus, to put off your old self, which belongs to your former manner of life and is corrupt through deceitful desires, and to be renewed in the spirit of your minds, and to put on the new self, created after the likeness of God in true righteousness and holiness." ~ Ephesians 4:17-24

Leader: In the light of God's complete knowledge of our thoughts, words, and actions, let us confess our sins together:

Heavenly Father, I know You to be good beyond all thought. Your promise to me in Your Word reveals that through Christ, my inheritance will be joy forevermore in the unparalleled Glory of Your immediate Presence. But I confess to You that I am not yet weaned from all vain-glory here in this world. Remaining pride and the esteem of others still cause me to eye my name in all I do. Forgive me for trying to find glory in my own achievements, for laboring to create and defend my own kingdom of self, and thereby disregarding the Hallowing of Your Name with my life. Reveal to my heart how pride undermines any hope of loving You and my neighbor. In teaching me Your Law, cause me to see the sinfulness of my own sin and then lead me to confession and repentance before You. Forgive me, cleanse me, and shift my eyes to the saving work of Your Son on the cross where He bore my sin, tasted my death, and saved my soul. In Christ's name I pray. Amen.

Leader: Please take a moment to privately commune with our Lord, confessing any specific sins of which you are aware.

Minister: People of God, lift up your heads and stand with me to hear the good news of our salvation. (Please Stand)

1 Peter 1:3-5 "Blessed be the God and Father of our Lord Jesus Christ! According to his great mercy, he has caused us to be born again to a living hope through the resurrection of Jesus Christ from the dead, to an inheritance that is imperishable, undefiled, and unfading, kept in heaven for you, who by God's power are being guarded through faith for a salvation ready to be revealed in the last time."

*Minister: Our sins are forgiven through the atoning work of Christ Jesus our Lord, the Lamb of God!
Congregation: Praise be to God!
